JEWISH ROUTES

A Sunday Breakfast Series

Please join us as RABBI STARR leads our discussion on:

Why Jewish Law in the 21st Century? Some Issues that have "Pushed the Envelope"

Looking at some controversial issues in our day and the ways in which Jewish Law impacts our understanding of them, we'll develop a sense of the meaning of Jewish Law in a world dominated by democratic ideals. Americans are obsessed with the idea of individualism and the right to choose the mode of behavior that most suits us. Why then should we feel ourselves bound by Halakha (Jewish Law)? In this context we'll look at such issues as interfaith marriage, the right to die, women as witnesses, and the greening of society, to see not only what Halakha says but, more importantly, how these issues have tested our commitment to Halakha and how Jewish tradition has maintained its commitment in the 21st century.
